From the tenth inning until the game ended both pitchers continued to improve but honors were slightly in favor of Schultz. Only three mental favor on hase in the fourteenth, but he was caught, Hoimes to Baker, in an attempt to steal second. Schultz completed his work in the fifteenth by pitching to only four men. Kircher hurled the last inning.

Richmond began to find Glaser in the closing chapters of the contest. Sam Daughton secured a two-base hit in the eleventh with two mendown, but Abbott fanned. The Colts passed up a splendid chance to win the game in their half of the thirteenth. Jim Poole started things off with a double to center field. Manager Gooch laid one down the first base line and was safe when Charlet failed to touch him. "Bings Arragon lifted one to Myers, but Holmes struck out. Daughton drew a pass, filling the bases. ### GOOBERS DROP ONE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FETERSBURG, VA., July 17.—
Fighting an up-hill battle during the first of the game, Portsmouth managed to come from behind and made it two out of three from the Goobers, the score being 6 to 3. Post got a bad start, but he soon settled down and pitched good ball.

The Truckers got their first three runs in the third inning and then sewed up the game in the seventh by hitting Bennett hard. Smith, the Petersburg left-fielder, contributed a double and four singles out of five trips to the plate. Kieln made two of the most sensational catches ever witnessed here.

Score:

the box and was forced to balk, passing over a run.

Norfolk scored two runs in the second. Schwartz muffed Simmon's high infield fly, putting the first man up on base; Wagner sacrificed and Holloman singled, scoring Simmons. Culloton walked and Beale threw wild to the biate a moment later, and Holloman geored.

In the sixth Leathers' single, Simmons' sacrifice and Wagner's single scored the third run. In the eighth Corcoran drew a free pass with two out and Bribeck and Leathers singled to put him across.

The game was featured by the hard luck batting of the Builders, who drove hot liners to the infield for double plays on three occasions, the fielding of Leathers at the short field and the batting of Catcher Holloman. Score:

Newport News.

In the tenth inning by the narrow margin of one run, the Cats winning 3 to 2. Meehan did the pitching for the Bugs and was steady throughout, and but for Castle's miscue in the third inning, he would have come out with the long end of a 1-to-9 game. Eckert was the opposing slabsman and he was no less steady, and had it not been for the miscue of Dembs in the opening inning, Wilson might have not scored its first urn.
